Show Synopsis:

Where You Are

Sisters Glenda and Suzanne live a quiet retirement life of selling homemade jam on Manitoulin Island. Their summer plans of trying to orchestrate sightings of their handsome veterinarian neighbour are disrupted when Suzanne's grown daughter, Beth arrives for summer vacation. The drama heats up their simple lifestyle as everyone has a secret and not everyone is willing to share. Watch as these three simple women face things that will complicate and change their lives forever.

NOTE: strong language and sexual references are included in this show. The subject matter is not appropriate for young viewers.
